

ANZICS/ACCN 2017 ASM Paediatrics Workshop

Wednesday 11th October 2017
8:30am - 12:00pm

Which Paeds Course for my Hospital? Recognising and Managing the Deteriorating Paediatric Patient

The developing language of resuscitation, recognition of deterioration and management for paediatric patients.

Aims of the Session

- To outline the development of Paediatric Resuscitation education in Australia
- To explore the developing framework of resuscitation and recognition of deterioration courses and identify the essential components for developing effective clinical care
- To specifically identify a selection of current courses, their underpinning ideologies and teaching approaches.
- To demonstrate practical elements of these courses

Outline

Introduction

Phil Sargent

The Essentials

A/Prof. Bruce Lister

The essentials of effective paediatric resus and the educational components required to meet this, the progressive development of a more sophisticated language and performance in clinical settings, including the role of CRM principles and graded escalation.

The Details

Dr. Ben Lawton, Dr. Andrea Christoff & ACCCN Representative

Brief presentations of Three Courses describing principles, process, practicalities of the course - OPTIMUS, Resus 4 Kids, ACCCN course.

The Discussion

Panel to discuss aspects and open to the audience.

The Break

Morning tea Break

The Proof

1 x 20 minute representative session from each course with Audience involvement 5 minutes changeover with discussion about components.

The Conclusion (Bruce)

A/Prof. Bruce Lister

Summary of elements and final questions.